Biography

Ron Coniglio is an outstanding teacher and internationally-acclaimed presenter. In his over 30 years of classroom instruction, he has taught High School, Middle School and Elementary School students. His success as an educator and his incredible teaching style has been spotlighted not only at the state and national level, but on the international stage as well.

As a presenter, Ron's ability to take ideas and translate them into meaningful, practical and inspirational examples of learning has made him a celebrated teacher of teachers. Ron helps educators across the country to find a "better way."

His workshops share many creative and innovative ways for teachers to improve learning and achievement for students. Ron consistently receives excellent evaluations from workshop participants from around the country who describe him as a "Master Teacher" and an inspiration to America's educators.

Ron's workshops are filled with powerful ideas that teachers can translate into their own classrooms. The humor and thought-provoking ideas he laces into his workshops serve to inspire educators and help them move to a new place in their professional growth.
